In the mighty name of our Lord Jesus Christ —
Praise the Lord!

Respected people of God,

I believe by the grace of the Lord you are all in good health and joy.

Today, I want to share among you the amazing work that God has done.

Yesterday, on Saturday, our fellowship was truly blessed. By the grace of the Lord, we were all able to glorify Him in a wonderful way.

Yesterday, Field Manager Pastor Prabajan Upadhyay visited the fellowship in Kohalpur-Haldarpur, Banke District for supervision and observation.

When he arrived, there were only five people gathered in the fellowship, worshipping the Lord in spirit. Among those five, it was known that two were unbelievers who had joined the worship.

Pastor Prabajan Upadhyay taught from the Word of God, and afterward, there was also a Holy Communion service. During the communion, he came to know that those two sisters had not yet accepted the Lord Jesus as their personal Savior.

Then, he lovingly shared the Gospel with them, and both of the sisters prayed the prayer of repentance, confessing their sins from their hearts.

At that very moment, both of them accepted the Lord Jesus Christ as their personal Savior.

After their confession of faith, the pastor gave them detailed teaching about the assurance of salvation, the importance of baptism, and the right to partake in the Lord's Supper. He also reminded them that when a person believes in Jesus, he or she can immediately receive baptism.

However, since there was no suitable arrangement of water nearby, baptism could not be conducted yesterday. Nevertheless, we believe that these two new believers will soon take baptism and publicly declare their faith in Jesus.

Thus, God continues to save souls daily through His servants and expand His kingdom. Even in other districts, one or two people are continuously coming to the salvation of the Lord, and the preaching of the Gospel is spreading widely.

Glory to God!

Thank you.
